The following personnel provide support to the investment advisor representatives listed above.

The following personnel have designations, which are conveyed by acronyms. Please see below for an explanation of the designations received by the following personnel.

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

In order to qualify as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), applicants must pass the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination and meet additional state education and experience requirements. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required to maintain this designation.

Personal Financial Specialist (PFS)

In order to qualify as a Personal Financial Specialist (PFS), applicants must pass an examination in regards to financial planning prescribed by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), be a CPA, be a member of the AICPA in good standing, and meet experience requirements. The PFS designation is a designation that is prescribed by the AICPA and is used in conjunction with the CPA designation as CPA/PFS. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required to maintain this designation.

Qualified Plan Financial Consultant (QPFC)

In order to qualify as a Qualified Plan Financial Consultant (QPFC), applicants must pass an examination in regards to retirement planning, administration, and regulatory requirements of qualified retirement plans prescribed by the American Society of Pension Professionals & Actuaries (ASPPA), hold a Series 65 license, and meet experience requirements. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required to maintain this designation.

The following personnel are also employed at other related companies, which may present a conflict of interest. Please see below for explanations of the other related companies and potential conflicts of interest.

Certified Plan Fiduciary Advisor (CPFA)

In order to qualify as a Certified Plan Fiduciary Advisor (CPFA), applicants must pass an examination in regards to retirement planning, administration, and regulatory requirements of qualified retirement plans prescribed by the National Association of Plan Advisors. A specified number of continuing education hours are also required to maintain this designation. Current QPFC holders are grandfathered and have a choice between continuing to use the QPFC designation, or switching their designation to CPFA. QPFC credential candidates needed to have completed the requirements for that designation by the end of 2015. If they did not do so, they are required to complete the CPFA requirements in order to gain the CPFA credential.

McMill CPA PC

McMill CPA PC is a Certified Public Accounting (CPA) firm licensed with the state of Nebraska. If in the employee's capacity as an investment adviser representative with Wealth Management Nebraska LLC, the employee determines that a client is in need of tax or accounting services, the client may be referred to McMill CPA PC. In addition, if accounting or tax clients of McMill CPA PC are in need of financial planning or other advisory services, the employee, acting in his/her separate capacity as an accountant or other employee of McMill CPA PC, may refer or recommend investment advisory services available through Wealth Management Nebraska LLC.

Clients are not obligated in any manner to use the services or an accounting firm recommended by the employee. If any Wealth Management Nebraska LLC client also becomes an accounting client of McMill CPA PC, the client will be charged separately for the accounting services.

Insurance Agent

In order to obtain an Insurance Producer license in the State of Nebraska, applicants must pass an examination. A specified number of continuing education hours are required to maintain this license.

Some employees of Wealth Management Nebraska LLC are independently licensed to sell insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies. When acting in this capacity, the employee will earn commissions for selling insurance and annuity products, which commissions are received by McMill CPA PC.

The earning of commissions may affect the judgment of the employee when recommending products to clients. While the employee endeavors at all times to put the interest of his/her clients first as part of his/her overall fiduciary duty to clients, clients should be aware that the earning of commissions and earning any additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect his/her decision making process when making recommendations.

Clients are never obligated or required to purchase insurance products from or through the employee and may choose any independent insurance agent and insurance company to purchase insurance products. Regardless of the insurance agent selected, the insurance agent or agency will receive normal commissions from the sale.

These insurance services and products are being offered as a convenience to the clients of McMill CPA and Advisors, Wealth Management Nebraska LLC, and McMill CPA PC.

Retirement Plan Consultants LLC

Retirement Plan Consultants LLC (RPC) is a retirement plan service provider, which provides services as a third party administrator (TPA), recordkeeper, and retirement plan consultant.
